

THE CENTER FOR INDIGENOUS PEOPLE, HEALTH AND NURSING PRESENTS

BEYOND THE BIRTH ROOM: SUSTAINABILITY THROUGH RELATIONSHIP BUILDING, POLICY AND POLITICS

with Nicolle Arthun, BSN, RN, MSN, CNM, FACNM

---

Tuesday, November 4 • 1:00 p.m. CST • Virtual

Nicolle Arthun is a Dine' Nurse-Midwife from the Navajo Nation with over 18 years of experience practicing in rural hospitals and community birth settings in New Mexico and is internationally renowned as a leading Native American maternal health expert. In 2015, she founded the Changing Woman Initiative to empower indigenous communities by protecting cultural birth resiliency and advocating for reproductive health, dignity, and justice.

Nicolle is widely recognized for her leadership and innovative contributions to this mission, making a significant impact in the field of Native American maternal health. She is CEO of Transcending Strategies LLC, focusing on systems change in maternal and reproductive health, personal leadership development, and Native American health policy reform, and was acknowledged as one of 15 Remarkable Women of Color by Colorlines and received an Outstanding Alumni Award from the Native American Alumni Chapter of University of New Mexico.

Register: z.umn.edu/Arthun

SCHOOL OF NURSING

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA